

The loss of klove in our area would be devastating. This our only all christian music station in the area. Klove tells of the love of Jesus through song and without commercials. This is very important.